Dear Lyn,

We are very grateful for your generous donation to the Community Center of Northern Westchester in memory of Raymond M. Romano. Your generosity truly touches the lives of so many in our community who face economic hardship.

3,000 local families each year reach out to us for help, whether trying to overcome a short-term crisis or facing longer term needs. All are working hard to get back on their feet and are appreciative of the resources and opportunities made available to them with your support.

This gift helps us provide job skills training, access to nutritious food and an array of resources to help our neighbors on their pathway forward to financial security.

Thank you for offering hope and stability to those in need as they weather their current life challenges and work toward a better tomorrow.

With best wishes,

Clare Murray
