Dear Heavenly Brickks,

Daniel

Because of you, the new year is brighter for more than a million veterans and their families. Your recent gift is changing lives like Daniel's.

A veteran of the wars in Iraq and Afghanistan, Daniel's darkest hour came on a Puget Sound beach one cold January day. After months of struggling with unemployment and chronic pain from his service, he lost all hope and tried to end his life. "They found me halfway in the water," says Daniel. "Another 30 minutes, I'd probably be dead."

After he was pulled from the water, Daniel threw himself into every Department of Veterans Affairs program he could for treatment. But he soon found himself homeless, living out of a van. That's when you came into his life through DAV. With your support, DAV helped Daniel secure a benefits increase, a new apartment, and a new purpose: volunteering to help fellow ill and injured veterans. "It's great to have each other's back," says Daniel.

Veterans helping veterans ... that's what you make possible. Thank you!

With deepest gratitude,

Barry A. Jesinoski
DAV National Adjutant/CEO
